To the Grant County Democrats,

I am sorry I cannot be with you in person today for your Pre-Primary Convention. I know what it takes to organize, and I want to say thank you for all of your work to engage democrats locally and across the State.

After serving as your Secretary of State for the past 10 years, I'm ready for what's next. Today, I am asking for your support for my campaign for Lieutenant Governor. I officially launched my campaign this past October because I've been on the frontlines protecting our elections, defending reproductive rights, and ensuring every New Mexican has a voice in our democracy. I'm ready to bring that leadership and integrity to the Lieutenant Governor's office.

This is a moment unlike any other in our nation's history. Donald Trump is pushing an agenda so extreme that the very bedrocks of our democracy are at risk. I've gone toe-to-toe with Trump and MAGA extremists to protect New Mexican families for years — and I'm ready to keep up the fight — starting on day one.

I have two decades of proven leadership in New Mexico:

As Bernalillo County Clerk and Secretary of State, I've fought to protect our elections, defend reproductive rights, and ensure every New Mexican has a voice in our democracy. I'm committed to solving problems, not playing politics — and I'll bring that same approach to the Lieutenant Governor's office.

I believe in integrity and transparency:

My goal is to build a stronger, more inclusive New Mexico for all families. As Lieutenant Governor, I will continue to work with integrity and honesty to defend our democracy and voting rights, stand up to extremism, and champion priorities like healthcare, education, and economic opportunity.

I'm ready to stand up for you and your loved ones:

Protecting you and your family is at the center of this fight. My vision for New Mexico is one that is bold, inclusive, and grounded in the values that make our state strong. I believe in a future where every New Mexican, regardless of background, can thrive.

I'm running to make sure every New Mexican has the opportunities and support they deserve. Thank you for reading and for hosting this county convention. I look forward to seeing you at the Statewide Convention in March. Learn more about my campaign at maggietoulouseoliver.com.

With you in the fight,
Maggie
